

PUBLIC LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1907.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1895.

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, AUGUST 24, 1905.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

THE MARRIAGE GAME.
The pretty girls
And witty girls
Have not the slightest show.
But—
The neatest girls,
The sweetest girls,
The girls who have the dough.
The cunning girl,
The stunning girl,
May both be in the game;
But—
The richest girl,
The quickest girl,
To drop her maiden name.
The fencing girls,
The dancing girls,
Do try so hard to win;
But—
The banking girls
Are spanking girls,
And pull the prizes in.
The laughing girls,
The chaffing girls,
Can always get a smile;
But—
The money girls,
As funny girls,
Will beat them by a mile.
The dashing girls,
The slashing girls,
Oft set a killing pace;
But—
The wealthy girls
Are healthy girls,
And surely win the race.

—Judge.

POSITIVELY

Copy for "changes" in advertisements MUST be sent in before 2 o'clock on the previous day.

If you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 33, and let us have it.

Roofing Paper 55c a roll at Hainline's. Nicholas county tobacco growers have subscribed $2,000 stock in the Burley Growers Company.

The remains of Mrs. Charles Clark, who died a few days ago at her home at Paris, were brought to Wedonia for interment.

George W. Thompson, aged nearly 80, is the oldest schoolteacher in attendance at the Bath County Teachers' Institute at Owingsville this week.

An evidence of the "slowness" of Dover, a shanty-boat was run into by a towboat in front of that town and its "seven sleepers" drowned dead! And Dover didn't know a thing about it till she read it in the papers.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway carried freight more cheaply last year, according to the figures of the Interstate Commerce Commission, than any other road in the United States. The rate on this road has been the lowest for nearly ten years.

James Bentley, charged with shooting William Hoffman at Covington, last Saturday midnight, was acquitted and released from custody after an examining trial. All the witnesses to the killing testified without hesitation that the shooting of Hoffman was purely accidental.

In order to reduce a very large stock of cut glass tumblers, water pitchers, berry bowls, ice tubs, sugars and creamers, we have made a great "reduction in price." We handle all the standard makes in cut glass.

P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

The contest between M. J. Hennessey of Brooksville and J. D. Humphrey of Flemingsburg, both of whom are claiming the Democratic nomination for Commonwealth's Attorney in this District, will be passed upon by the Democratic State Central Committee about September 1st.

At the home of the bride's mother in Cincinnati last Thursday at noon, Miss Louise Hord and Mr. Frederick Raines of Roanoke, Va., were united in marriage. Miss Hord and her parents formerly resided in Flemingsburg. Mr. Raines is located in Cincinnati where he is engaged in the coal business.

Mr. Dallas C. Webb of Winchester and Miss Nancy J. Thomas of Hodges applied for a marriage license at Paris Tuesday, but Miss Thomas declined to make oath that she was 21 years of age and license was refused. The couple at once struck out for this city, where the knot was tied by Judge C. D. Newell.

Mr. John L. Case, thirty-five years ago a valued employee of The Ledger Man, and who has for a long time been Manager of a big printing plant in St. Louis, was yesterday a pleasant caller on THE LEDGER. The only familiar face he found among the attaches was that of the "Old Man." Mr. Case came for a visit to his sisters, Miss Harriet H. Case and Mrs. Rebecca E. Hamilton, and with his accomplished daughter, Miss Eleanor, who had been here for several weeks, left this morning for his home in the Mound City.

SOMETHING NEW!

Among other current novelties dealers all over the country report great interest developing in PUFFED RICE, an entirely new thing in ready-to-eat cereals. Warm and serve with cream and sugar or with salt and butter. 5c per quart. You will like it.

TELEPHONE No. 43. G. W. GEISEL, OPPOSITE OPERA-HOUSE.

Split Tobacco Sticks

For a few days we will carry them in stock and make prices the lowest.

H. H. COLLINS LUMBER... COMPANY

TELEPHONE 99.

Personal

Mrs. M. W. Coulter is in Cincinnati today.

Mr. Robert L. Hoedlich left yesterday for New York.

Mrs. Ernest Henson is home from a visit at Millersburg.

Miss Alice Lloyd of Germantown was in the city yesterday.

Miss Eudora Hall of Covington is the guest of friends here.

Miss Lottie Hostetter of Carlisle is visiting friends in the county.

Mrs. Robert T. Wilson has returned from a short visit at Carlisle.

Miss Agnes Willenbrink of Cincinnati is the guest of Mrs. A. Clooney.

Mr. and Mrs. John Leer of Millersburg are on a visit to relatives in this county.

Mr. Theo Poage of the county is the guest of his nephew, Ben Brown of Catlettaburg.

Miss Mamie Archdeacon has returned from West Virginia and Mountain Lake Park.

Miss Gussie Boswell of Aberdeen was yesterday the guest of Miss Adah Lee Souseley.

Colonel Evan Lloyd of Germantown was yesterday a welcome caller on THE LEDGER.

Miss Louise Newcomb of Ripley has been visiting relatives in this city the past week.

Mrs. H. B. Walton is the guest of her mother, Mrs. S. D. Rigdon of Germantown.

Miss Mamie Archdeacon of Mayalek is visiting the family of James Archdeacon of Carlisle.

Miss Maggie McIntire of Sharpsburg is a few weeks the guest of Mrs. J. L. McDowell near Germantown.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Plummer of Portsmouth are visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Plummer of Tollesboro.

Miss Dola Dersch leaves at noon today for Portsmouth to spend two weeks with friends and relatives.

Miss Anna Garth Tarr has returned to her home at Millersburg, after a visit to Miss Nancy Peed of Mayslick.

Mrs. Susan Kilpatrick of West Fourth street was the guest Tuesday of Mrs. Mary George Harris of Carlisle.

Mrs. L. V. Davis and Miss Adah Lee Souseley went to Cincinnati this morning, the latter to remain a few days.

Mrs. Walter Smith went to Paris to meet her mother, Mrs. Sarah Francis, who will visit this place for some time.

Miss Etta Adams of Covington is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. H. B. Galbraith, at Germantown during the Fair.

Mrs. J. W. Piper and daughter, Juliet, are the guests of Mrs. Piper's sister, Mrs. F. E. Van Dyke of Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Robertson are now in the White Mountains, Bethlehem, N. H., for the remainder of the summer.

Mrs. B. V. Prewitt has returned from Portsmouth, after visiting at the home of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Searcy.

Misses Lillian and Florence Chansior of Millersburg are visiting Misses Mamie and Ethel Wallingford in the county.

Miss Eliza Piper has returned to her home at Carlisle, after a month's stay with relatives and friends in this city and county.

Mrs. Charles McCormick and three children of Columbus, O., are visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Traxel of West Second street.

Miss Nora Sarsfield, niece of the late Mrs. Matthew Markland, called here by the latter's illness, left this morning for her home at Piedmont, W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Jefferson, Mrs. Anna Jefferson and Miss Ruth McClintock of Millersburg are guests of Misses Sudie and Minnie Norris of Fernleaf.

Messrs. W. Gus and George Francis were guests of their sister, Mrs. Walter Smith, of East Second street, for a few days. They are on their way to Shelbyville to open up business.

Mr. E. Humphreys of Waverly, O., President of the Home Telephone Company, is in the city.

Messrs. C. E. Conden, C. W. McCopin and H. E. Kerr, prominent Waverly citizens, are in the city.

Mr. Sherman Edgington of West Union, O., arrived last night in a Logan automobile to take in Beechwood Park.

Hadn't You Better Drop in and See the Splendid Values

We are offering at ridiculously low prices to clean up our spring and medium-weight goods? What we particularly call your attention to are a number of Suits made by the best of Rochester manufacturers that sold at $20, $22.50 and $25; your pick and choice of these until they are gone at $14.50. Our Boys' and Children's Suits are reduced in same proportion. Our Fall Shoes are moving. See ours before you buy. Our entire fall line of John B. Stetson Hats are now in and ready for your inspection.

THE HOME STORE.

D. HECHINGER & CO.

Cliff & Biggers captured thirty premiums at the Vanceburg Fair.

We want to buy another carload of yellow corn; also some more off wheat.

E. L. MANCHESTER,
Manager Keystone Commercial Co.

This is the season to buy good Monn mental work cheap. See MURRAY & THOMAS.

Gavin H. Cochran, who was a School Trustee for thirty years, and whose work brought about much of the development of the Louisville Public School system, died Tuesday, aged 80.

The horse of the day is Miss Houghs, road mare of Cliff & Biggers. She won first money in the $80 road ring at Vanceburg.

The remains of Alma Moore, aged 33, who died at Dayton, O., were interred in the Cemetery at Washington yesterday afternoon.

Come in and get one of my lists and select a farm and buy it now. JOHN DULLEY.

Miss Gordon's Training School will open Thursday, September 7th. For further information apply to the Advisory Board or address Miss Gordon, Frankfort, Ky.

ONLY A FEW!

Dainty tucks, lace and swiss insertions in intricate patterns, hemstitching, embroidery all have been lavishly used in these beautifully made White India Linon Shirt Waists. Their usefulness is not limited to any season. Over a lining their service is assured throughout the winter. Not many left but every size in some pattern is represented. Prices $1, $1.25, $1.50.

FOR WISE BUYERS!

The end of one summer is so closely at the heels of the next that many good planners buy now for then. If you are one you will be interested in the beautiful silks we are selling for 39c. Some dark colors for winter wear among them and the daintiest light shades. Original values 69c, 75c, 89c, $1. Now 39c yard.

D. HUNT & SON.

Go out to Beautiful Beechwood tonight.

The water consumers of Harrodsburg have agreed to defray the expenses of operating the waterworks of that city until October 28th, at which time Judge Cochran will pass on a motion to close the plant.

See notice elsewhere of Master Commissioner C. Burgess Taylor.

Mrs. E. A. Rogers of East Third street, Fifth Ward, fell Tuesday while coming down the stairs at her home and broke her left ankle.

Coal at L. T. Gaebeke & Co.'s yard at 10 cents per bushel.

Thomas Hiner, a practicing lawyer of Jackson, son of Rev. M. W. Hiner, will ask to be admitted to Kentucky Conference, which will meet September 6th at Covington.

Two Square Pianos cheap at Gerbrich's.

Mrs. C. M. Plister and son, Laurance, left last afternoon to visit her parents at Swan Creek, O., from which point the latter will leave in a few days for Lexington, Va., to resume his studies at Virginia Military Institute.

SATURDAY IS RED LETTER DAY!

Bring your book to the PREMIUM DEPARTMENT and get $1.00 worth free. DOUBLE STAMPS ALL DAY, combined with our AUGUST CLEARANCE SALE, will keep us busy, while the buzzing fans will keep you cool. BARGAINS TOO NUMEROUS TO MENTION.

MERZ BROS.

PROPRIETORS OF THE BEE HIVE.